DETAILED ACTION

Reissue Applications

1. The reissue oath/declaration filed with this application is defective because it fails to specifically identify at least one error, which is relied upon to support the reissue application. See 37 CFR 1.175(a)(1) and MPEP § 1414.

2. Claims 1-91 rejected as being based upon a defective reissue oath/declaration under 35 U.S.C. 251 as set forth above. See 37 CFR 1.175. The nature of the defect(s) in the oath/declaration is set forth in the discussion above in this Office action.

3. Claims 16-91 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Pannu v. Storz Instruments Inc., 258 F.3d 1366, 59 USPQ2d 1597 (Fed. Cir. 2001); Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue, which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35

Art Unit: 2145

U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope surrendered in the application for the filing of the present reissue application cannot recapture the patent.

4. Multiple limitations have been omitted in the reissue application. An example of the limitations omitted in the reissue are “coupling”, “transferring the selected application from a memory device to the at least one of the plurality of dedicated processors for execution”, “executing the particular application selected by the user at the at least one of the selected dedicated processors” and other limitations added/deleted from the original application but omitted in the reissue application. This provides a broadening aspect to the reissue claim that was clearly argued in the original application to overcome the rejection based on reference Gagin, USPN 5,30,757, in view of Bleidt, USPN 5,671,377. Thus the omission of these limitations and others is related to the subject matter surrendered in the original application. Applicant narrowed the claims for the purpose of obtaining an allowance in the original prosecution and applicant is now precluded from recapturing subject matter previously surrendered. See Mentor Corp. v. Coloplast, Inc. 998 F.2d 992, 994, 27 USPQ2d 1521, 1524 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

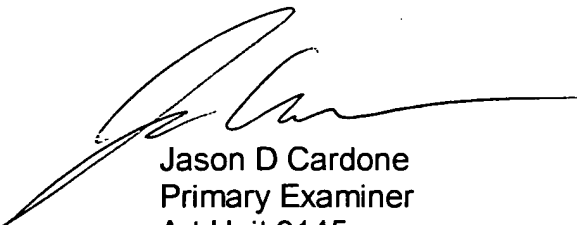

5. Applicant is notified that any subsequent amendment to the specification and/or claims must comply with 37 CFR 1.173(b).
